Challenge Quilts

Thank you to everyone who finished and entered their Treasure Quilt and INMQ Machine Quilting Challenges into the quilt show. It was wonderful to see everyone's finished quilts.

Congratulations to the Treasure Quilt ribbon winners: Audrey McLean for 1st Place, Penny Ragland for 2nd Place, and Anita Pederson for 3rd Place.

Congratulations to the INMQ Machine Quilting Challenge ribbon winners: Marj Rouse for 1st Place, Lorean Boornazian for 2nd Place, Lillian Nehring for 3rd Place.

Thank you Sherry Thompson for being the drop off location for the INMQ Challenge quilts.

Treasure Quilt Challenge

January we will be starting the 2027 Treasure Quilt Challenge. Quilts and paperwork will be handed out at this time. We have purchased three and have had a few quilts donated for this year's challenge. The same rules will apply: Work on an antique quilt in your possession, or draw a number for a box owned by INMQ. Please let me know at the November meeting if you are 1: planning on participating 2. if you are going to work on a quilt in your possession, or 3. you will need to get a box from INMQ with a quilt inside it. Once I know how many are going to participate and need to a quilt, I can figure out if I need to purchase more tops to meet the needs. This will allow me to figure out the cost of the 2027 Treasure Quilt Challenge.

INMQ Excellence in Machine Quilting Challenge

It was great to all the star quilts hanging together and the different designs everyone came up with for this year's challenge.

I am working on a design for the 2027 challenge and will have more information in January. Kits will be available at the March meeting.

Anita Pederson

Charity Central

Charity Central has donated close to 900 quilts this year. That is a phenomenal number! Thank you for whatever part you had in that! We have about 300 quilts that are ready for quilting and are hoping that you will continue working with us.
In 2027, Charity Central will be putting a lot of focus on smaller quilts, both the making and the quilting. We will be talking about quilting with a walking foot on your domestic machine and about "quilt as you go". Our Distribution Chair, Marilyn, says that about half of the organizations we contribute to ask for smaller, child size quilts, under 40" x 60". We currently receive about 30% small quilts and 70% large quilts. We are hoping to change that to closer to 50% each. There will still be plenty of larger quilts for longarm quilters to do and we welcome your help. I will not be at the November meeting, but you can still get quilts. Send an email to Charity.Central@ WSQspokane.org with your contact information and we will be in touch about getting some to you. You can bring your quilted quilts to any WSQ Meeting, INMQ Meeting, or any Charity Central workday.

I wish you a very happy holiday season! Thank you, again, for all you do for Charity Central. We couldn't do it without you!
